

S U M M A R Y

This is the third part and last one (pp. 177-185) of Dean Leonidas Philippidis' work about the prayer in which he examines the results of it.

Bishop Eulogios Kourilas examines (pp. 186-196) first what is really the paradise and secondly what is the teaching of the Eastern Orthodox Church about it.

Here is published the prologue and a small part (pp. 197-211) Prof. Gerasimos Konidaris' address, delivered at the auditorium of the University of Athens the 30th of January 1955, commemorating the holiday of the three Hierarchs, which is also honored in Greece as Greek Education Day. The Professor Konidaris' subject is «The formation of the Catholic Church during the first five centuries and the three Hierarchs».

From Mr. A. Theodorou's work «Leontius Byzantinus' christological terminology and his teaching» here are published (pp. 212-222) the preface and the first part of it: metaphysical terminology.

In the following (pp. 223-258) it is published the associated Professor of the University of Salonica Telemachus Philippidis' work: «The crimes against the religion according to the Greek penal code».

This is (pp. 259-262) Archimandrite Panteleimon Caranicolas' «A note on Anastasius of Sinai». In this note Father Caranicolas examines who is the author of two collections of stories discovered by F. Nan, the second of which attribute to Anastasius of Sinai.

Mr. Dicaios Vayiakakos from unpublished sources elucidates (pp. 263-282) the history of the «Monastery Voulcianos» in Ithome (Greece) in relation to its branch in Smyrna (Asia Minor).

«Les tendances des mouvement liturgique en occident» (pp. 283-292) by Mr. Th. Maertens. Here Mr. Maertens relates the liturgical movement in the Catholic Church especially in France and Belgium.

Mr. E. Chrysanthopoulos continues (pp. 293-309) to examine the slavic invasion during the period of Byzantine Emperors Phocas and Heraclius, and also the same subject according to «The books of miracles of Saint Demetrios».

This is a necrology (pp. 310-327) of the late P. Wilhelm Schmidt by Dean Leonidas Philippidis Professor of the University of Athens.

S.D.L.